Thank you for your interest in Clark College.

Archer Gallery Curator/Manager

Clark College is currently accepting applications for a part time (49%), temporary Archer Gallery Curator/Manager. This position works 10 months of the year, reports to the Chair of the Art Department, and is responsible for planning, designing, and physically installing six exhibits yearly, which includes contacting artists, galleries, and collectors to request loans of select pieces.

The Archer Gallery has established a reputation as a significant alternative exhibition venue in the Portland/Vancouver regional area. The mission of the gallery is two-fold: to present a mixture of shows that compliment the curriculum of the Art Department and other departments within the college, and to expose our students and the greater surrounding area to the highest level of contemporary regional art.

Based upon class availability and area of expertise, part-time teaching within the Art Department may also be available.

Duties and responsibilities:

- Visit artists' studios and maintain current contacts with artists and galleries in Portland, Seattle and surrounding areas; keep current of contemporary art practices in the Pacific Northwest.
- Coordinate a gallery prep class.
- Arrange packing, shipping and insurance of pieces.
- Arrange press releases and media coverage of shows. Prepare flyers, announcement cards, and catalogs.
- Compile, update, and maintain the Gallery mailing list.
- Prepare bulk mailings.
- Hire, train, and supervise work study students.
- Deliver presentations and gallery talks to students and other groups.
- Plan, coordinate, and attend receptions and artists' talks.
- Schedule outside activities involving use of the gallery space.
- Prepare a yearly budget and present it to the Student Government Finance Committee.
- Administer the Gallery budgets by monitoring expenditures and maintaining records of all purchases; resolving budget problems.
- Perform other duties as assigned.

STARTING SALARY RANGE

$2,150 per month for 10 months
(49% of $4,388 per month)

Condition of employment: Finalist(s) for this position will be subject to a pre-employment background check as a condition of employment.

Affirmative Action Definition

American Indian or Alaskan Native. A person with origins in any of the original peoples of North America and who maintains cultural identification through documented tribal affiliation or community recognition.

Asian or Pacific Islander. A person with origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, or the Pacific Islands. For example, China, Japan, Korea, Pakistan, the Philippine Republic, or Samoa.

African-American/Black. A person with origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa.

Hispanic. A person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South America, or other Spanish culture or origin regardless of race. For example, persons from Brazil, Guyana, or Surinam would be classified according to their race and would not necessarily be included in the Hispanic category. This category does not include persons from Portugal, who should be classified according to race.

Caucasian/White. A person with origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, North Africa, or the Middle East.

Disabilities. For Affirmative Action purposes, people with disabilities are persons with a permanent physical, mental, or sensory impairment; which substantially limits one or more major life activities. Physical, mental, or sensory impairment means: (a) any physiological or neurological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the body systems or functions; or (b) any mental or psychological disorder such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, or any specific learning disability. The impairment must be material rather than slight, and permanent in that it is seldom fully corrected by medical replacement, therapy or surgical means.

Disabled veteran. A person entitled to disability compensation under laws administered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs for disability rated at 30 percent or more, or a person whose discharge or release from active duty was for a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty.

Vietnam-era veteran. A person who served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days, any part of which occurred between August 5, 1964, and May 7, 1975, and was discharged or released from duty with other than a dishonorable discharge.
