Region at a Glance

Located on the Columbia River, just 15 minutes from downtown Portland, Oregon, 90 miles from the Pacific Ocean, and one hour from the scenic Cascade mountain range, Vancouver is a diverse waterfront community with a thriving business center, abundant recreational opportunities, and historical and cultural richness. Known for its commitment to education, Vancouver and Clark County have a diverse economy and well-educated workforce. Vancouver is Washington's fourth largest city with a population of 162,400 situated in a growing Clark County with a population of 424,200.

Cultural and recreational opportunities include theater, dance, chamber music, professional sports, and historic Mt. St. Helens National Volcanic Monument. Clark County offers a high quality of life, including a mix of urban areas, parks, farmlands, and forests. Fishing, hunting, swimming, boating, camping, skiing, windsurfing, and hiking are just a few of the outdoor pursuits that flourish in the area. Living in Clark County has the benefits of a large metropolitan area, with a less crowded feel.

Residents of Clark County enjoy a reasonable cost of living. Washington has no income tax and the county offers affordable housing with the median sale price at $250,000.

Clark County is a regional hub for transportation and commerce. Downtown Vancouver is located just 15 minutes away from the Portland International Airport. The Port of Vancouver offers a deep-draft harbor for ocean-going commerce and the area is also served by AMTRAK.

Vancouver was named among the top 100 best places to live in Money Magazine, 2005.

The security of all the members of the college community is of vital concern to Clark College. Information regarding crime prevention advice, the authority of the Security/Safety Department, policies concerning reporting of any crimes which may occur on the campus, and crime statistics for the most recent 4-year period may be requested from the Clark College Security/Safety Department, (360) 992-2133.

Affirmative Action Definition

American Indian or Alaskan Native. A person with origins in any of the original peoples of North America and who maintains cultural identification through documented tribal affiliation or community recognition.

Asian or Pacific Islander. A person with origins in any of the original peoples of the Far East, Southeast Asia, the Indian Subcontinent, or the Pacific Islands. For example, China, Japan, Korea, Pakistan, the Philippine Republic, or Samoa.

African-American/Black. A person with origins in any of the Black racial groups of Africa.

Hispanic. A person of Mexican, Puerto Rican, Cuban, South America, or other Spanish culture or origin regardless of race. For example, persons from Brazil, Guyana, or Surinam would be classified according to their race and would not necessarily be included in the Hispanic category. This category does not include persons from Portugal, who should be classified according to race.

Caucasian/White. A person with origins in any of the original peoples of Europe, North Africa, or the Middle East.

Disabilities. For Affirmative Action purposes, people with disabilities are persons with a permanent physical, mental, or sensory impairment; which substantially limits one or more major life activities. Physical, mental, or sensory impairment means: (a) any physiological or neurological disorder or condition, cosmetic disfigurement, or anatomical loss affecting one or more of the body systems or functions; or (b) any mental or psychological disorder such as mental retardation, organic brain syndrome, emotional or mental illness, or any specific learning disability. The impairment must be material rather than slight, and permanent in that it is seldom fully corrected by medical replacement, therapy or surgical means.

Disabled veteran. A person entitled to disability compensation under laws administered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs for disability rated at 30 percent or more, or a person whose discharge or release from active duty was for a disability incurred or aggravated in the line of duty.

Vietnam-era veteran. A person who served on active duty for a period of more than 180 days, any part of which occurred between August 5, 1964, and May 7, 1975, and was discharged or released from duty with other than a dishonorable discharge.
